

Justin Kemp Band

Rising Country Artist Justin Kemp (Justin Kemp Band) is from the great state of New Mexico on the Texas Border. Growing up he was influenced by the greats such as George Strait, Merle Haggard, George Jones, Brooks & Dunn, Vince Gill, and Dwight Yoakum, to name just a few. As a 27 year old he also enjoys and covers the music of today's country like Luke Combs, Brett Young, Chris Young, and Cody Johnson along with 15 or so of his own JKB originals.

Justin and the band have toured primarily in the Southwest, but have also played shows in Tennessee, Kentucky, and California. 2020 was rough on all in the music industry, but 2021 just keeps getting better as Justin continues to write, record, and tour with his band.

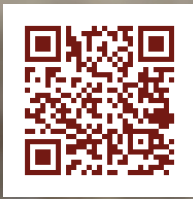

We can't wait to see y'all on the road this year!
